ORDER

BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court has received and reviewed the letter-application filed by defendants Nicolas Louis and Johnathan Fowler (the Individual Defendants) on May 2, 2019 (Dkt. No. 83), which requests that the Court:

temporarily revise the Protective Order by Consent (ECF Doc. No. 54), so as to: (1) permit the Individual Defendants the ability to review Plaintiffs' fourth production volume on the Relativity database established by this firm without attorney supervision until the time of the next conference; and (2) specifically ordering Mr. Louis and Mr. Fowler not to copy, download or otherwise record the material that they review during this time (except that in the course of assisting counsel, they may apply coding tags or make notes in the firm's Relativity system, or make notes on any computer owned by Ford O'Brien so long as such notes are not thereafter transferred to the Individual Defendants' possession).

(Id. at 1.)

The letter-application is GRANTED to the extent that, pending further order of the Court or stipulation of the parties, the Individual Defendants may review plaintiffs' "fourth production volume on the Relativity database" without attorney supervision, ON THE CONDITION THAT, before any such review, each Individual Defendant must execute (and provide to his counsel, who must retain) a copy of the Agreement to be Bound attached to this Order as Exhibit 1.
